

Q & A !

Nagasaki Institute of Applied Science/Japan

Who are the members?

There are international students and Japanese students from all over Nagasaki. You can make friends with students from various countries and other universities.

Nagasaki University of Foreign Studies/Japan

Where is the activity base?

The activity base for the southern part of Nagasaki is Nagasaki University, and it is Nagasaki International University for the northern part. We do many activities at the other universities as well.

What's GP Program?

GP is a program which is planned and managed by student leaders. We plan different activities and events to interact with international students as well as local citizens. The aim of this program is to contribute to a local community.

<<Examples of achievements>>

What's the collaboration course?

Collaboration courses are categorized into three parts. (Foreign Language, Nagasaki History and Culture, and Career Subjects) Students take courses that are required by their university. Under this course, students can also take classes that are offered at the universities besides their own. For more details, please check our website.

What are the merits in participating in the program?

Through the experience of participating in the program, you will be able to act spontaneously, build teamwork, and gain on-site capabilities.

University of Nagasaki, Siebold Campus/Japan

What does the planning and administration committee do? ?

We have many events such as presentation competition and café talk. Student leaders plan and manage these events with helping each other. Why don't you join us and have good time to plan events yourself?

Nagasaki University of Foreign Studies/Japan

Do I need to pay the membership fee to join the program?

No. Activities are supported by the subsidies of Nagasaki Pref. and a share of the expenses from participating universities.

Nagasaki "Glocal" Alliance Program

Program Application Guideline for 2024

Let's Become Glocal People!

From Nagasaki to the World

Our program collaborates with universities and colleges in Nagasaki. We carry out student organized activities for both Japanese and international students for them to engage in courses that promote diversity while working together. Working hard and encouraging each other, we are making effort to build the basic skills to be able to perform as a Glocal people in the local and the global society. With that said,

Come join us!!

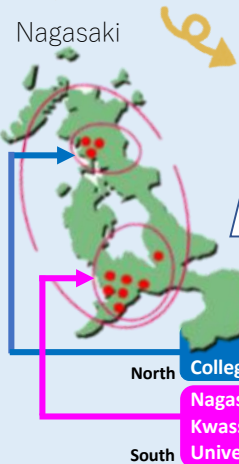

How the "GP" works

In the organization "University consortium Nagasaki" that connects universities in the prefecture, the following activities are carried out.

Learning Activities (NICE Campus)

Collaborative Activities (Volunteers)

Workshop Activities (Events etc)

"GP" Members
North Nagasaki region / South Nagasaki region
Depending on the region, various activities and exchanges are organized.

Presentation competition (July)

The biggest event of the GP! Students from all the universities situated in Nagasaki gather and make a presentation on a theme based on their own reflection. Every year gets better and funnier!

What does

Glocal Alliance Program

GP

do??

Welcome party (April/October)

Make new friends!
It's the occasion for the freshers and the international students to meet and get integrated.

Events (Year-round)

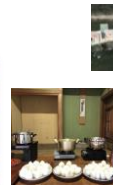

It is a regular gathering!

Discuss on a theme!
Exchange and share your culture!

Volunteering Works (Year-round)

【Participant's Voice】

Had good opportunity to meet new people who helped me a lot in translating what I couldn't figure out by myself.

Parties!

Good chance to make friends and get to know each other.

What is a student leader?

We plan the events we like, and organize them together to the point where we call each other "friends".

By participating into voluntary activities, thinking of new plans together we got a lot of social experience.

If you'd like to become a GP student leader member, check a box on the GP registration form!

GP Student Leaders' Main Activities

● Regular Meeting ●

University students and International students gather for a light-hearted atmosphere meeting. It is always a lot of fun!!

● Exchange Camp ●

Students from each country accomplish their exchange and have fun by doing the presentation, global talks, recreation, food sharing...

*Student leaders' meetings and camps are basically carried out in Japanese.
